

International Rally Newsletter

Word from the editor

The weather is still cold outside, not a good time to get on my bike. Despite the lack of 'bike-miles' in this season the Dutch organization of the International Rally is working hard to organize a great party for you this summer. This newsletter is the first in a small series to keep all of you up to date on our progress. You'll find information on dates, bands, routes, contact information and much more.

Enjoy!

Registration to the rally

You can help us to make this rally a success by preregistering your booking. If you plan to attend our rally please preregister at the following address:
